—o—

On 20-5-93 Narasimha Maistry presented an application to the Sub Division Officer of Chikaballapur, praying for the grant of la on godi tenure for the up-ke of the Chatram, temple, and the well constructed by him at Sultanpet.

The Sub division Officer in submitting the applicatio of Narasimha maistry to the Deputy Comr. of Kolar state as follows:—

The applicant has built the Chatram &c at a cost of about Rs: 4000. The work is of public utility a it is erected on the high road near Nandyl. The Chatram and the well prove to be of great service to the travellers especially during the time of jattra. They meet a much needed want of the public. The Dewan in his tour last year, inspected the place expressed his satisfaction at it. The charitable work of Navasimha Maistry worthy of commendation and of perpetual maintenance. The lands applied for by the founder may be granted for the upkeep of the Chatram &c. These lands are all unoccupied lands with the exception of Survey Nos. 20 and 21 of Sultanpet which are the property of the founder and his brother who are willing to resign them for the purpose of having them for the benifit of the Chatram &c. If their resignation is accepted the said lands would also become unoccupied fit to be granted

2. The applicant Narasimha Maistry in explying the several queries set up by the Dy: Comr stated that he had obtained no permission for building the Chatram &c. nor had he any promise held out for lands on godi tenure; that he took up the work in hand in the year Akshaya (1866-67) and had the same completed in the year Pramadi (1879-80); that the building is on his Candayam land S. No. 8; that during the Survey Settlement this land was left free consequent upon the Chatram &c. erected thereon; that in the year Pramadi he brought the idol Anjaneia from Nandy with the knowledge and permission of the Deputy Comr and had the same dedicated in the temple erected for the purpose in the Chatram; that the Chatram &c. have cost him about Rs: 3 or 10 thousands for which he has kept no account;

Khata as well as the 2 other Kharale lands selected, may be ordered to be given on jodi tenure; that if they cannot be so given, he may be permitted to pay Rs: 200 or 250 more in addition to Rs: 500 already promised and to have the lands thus made free and independent and the revenue thereof used for the up-keep of the institution thus made perpetual.

After much correspondence, in the matter, between the Sub Div. Officer and the Amildar, lands S. Nos 35 and 39 of Angatta village and S. Nos 147 & 150 of Kudu-valli village have been selected with the consent of the founder of the Charity as no waste lands were available in Sultanpet and an alienation statement has been

The rules contained in Appx C to the said Res Rule of 1890 do not specify any period within which application for the grant of lands should be made after the construction of the Chatra. Nor is it provided therein that the person should make a previous application. The limitations specified in the rules are —

(1) that no lands will be granted for the maintenance of a chatra of less than Rs 20/ in value —

(2) that the lands to be granted for a chatra costing built at an outlay of Rs 500/= should be of an assessment of Rs 70; half of this being allowed in the case of chatras between Rs 200, 500/=

(3) that the lands should be

(4) that in case of misappropriation or neglect, the lands are liable to be resumed —

In the present case the Chatra is said to have been built at a cost of about Rs 4000/-. The lands selected are situated in the same Taluk where the Chatra is, but in different villages. No lands are available in the same village for grant. The construction of the Chatra was completed in 1879-1880.

For a Chatra built by one Sreenivasiengar in 1896 at Madihalli, Sira Taluk, 300 acres were granted in 1898 by Govt Order No. $\frac{2261-3}{R\,910}$ dy 16.9.98. Please see file marked A. Serial No 6. In the present case the works was completed so far back as 1879-80. Submitted to the Secretary 11/5/02
